Evening Bollard Light

A slender column stands tall along the path, giving the Evening Bollard Light a clean, architectural profile after dark. Warm, low light spills from its top to mark the way and guide steps without glaring into eyes, while the wet-rated build holds up through rain, snow, and every season in between. Wired on a simple low-voltage run, it sets up easily along a walk, driveway, or garden bed, and lines up in a row for a runway effect. Two heights — a compact 11-in. and a taller 14-in. that throws a wider pool — in Antique Brass or Black. Durable landscape lighting that makes the yard beautiful past sunset.
